

No Longer

Nichole Nordeman

This my red sea
And my Jericho
This is my Philistine
And my five stones
But talk is cheap
So is bargaining
So, here I go

I don't want to live
Like I'm half alive
I don't want to walk
Where the road is wide
All this fear that I've
Been tryin' to hide
Is going to start to show

This is how it's been Always hesitant

I want to my feel my heart on fire now
And let the safety net burn down
Throw my arms out wide
Let your love collide in me
I want to run with my heart on my shirt
Straight into the wind, maybe get hurt
I thought living safe meant living stronger
No longer

There's a set of keys
And a heavy door
They can set you free
Or lock you in some more
If you sing your song
I will sing along
Let the walls come down

So let's go find the stars
Let's remember who we are

I want to my feel my heart on fire now
And let the safety net burn down
Throw my arms out wide
Let your love collide in me
I want to run with my heart on my shirt
Straight into the wind, maybe get hurt
I thought living safe meant living stronger
No longer

Afraid, no longer
Ashamed, no longer
A slave, no longer
No longer, no longer
I'm stronger, I'm stronger

Afraid, no longer

No longer, no longer
I'm stronger, I'm stronger

I want to my feel my heart on fire now
Straight into the wind, maybe get hurt
Cause I thought living safe meant living stronger
No longer...
