

Eyes Closed

Nick Cannon

There's a million reasons
That's y'all don't have the time
And everytime I'm leaving
I go out my mind
I'm loving you harder
I don't know what to do
So why should I bother?

I've waited so long for this
Feeling I got and I'm not letting go of this

I'm kissing you with my eyes closed
There's nothing they can do to save me
Now that I know, I'm giving you every piece of me
With my eyes closed, grab your arms around me
And let's keep on dancing, let it all just happen

Every night in my dreams
You walk across my mind
I'll love you if you let me
One life at a time
I'm loving you harder
I don't know what to do
So why should I bother?

I've waited so long for this
Feeling I got and I'm not letting go of this

I'm kissing you with my eyes closed
There's nothing they can do to save me
Now that I know, I'm giving you every piece of me
With my eyes closed, grab your arms around me
And let's keep on dancing, let it all just happen

I'm kissing you with my eyes closed
There's nothing they can do to save me
Now that I know, I'm giving you every piece of me
With my eyes closed, grab your arms around me
And let's keep on dancing, let it all just happen

When you dance, there's magic
Third eye divine in their truth
Even though my eyes are closed
I can still see through
Can you see it too?
I'm kissing you
I'm kissing you, yeah yeah
