

Bouncing

Nick Hakim

Seek a mastermind
A seer who can provide a sign
I've been tryna find
Peace
'Cause I've been bouncing off these walls, I can't sleep
She was walking towards me
Her form was faintly morphing
I said, "Please
Say something"
She grabbed my hand and disappeared
Sinking down these thoughts at night
The scent of you spills through my mind
I've been tryna find
Peace
'Cause I've been bouncing off these walls, I can't sleep

All these lonely strangers
Marching through the snow storm
Trying to get to work on time
Trying to get to work on time
Sinking down these thoughts at night
The scent of you spills through my mind
I've been tryna find
Peace
'Cause I've been bouncing off these walls, I can't sleep

All these lonely strangers marching through the snow storm
Tryna find some peace of mind, we all keep bouncing
All these lonely strangers marching through the snow storm
Tryna find some peace of mind, we all keep bouncing
All these lonely strangers marching through the snow storm
Tryna find some peace of mind, we all keep bouncing
All these lonely strangers marching through the snow storm
Tryna find some peace of mind, we all keep bouncing
