Damn

Damn, I love how your scent lives on me
I carry it all through the night
Your perfume on me makes me feel weak
I wear your hoodie all night
Your perfume with my eyes closed
Reminds me of all of your love and your light
I can't get your stench off me
I love how it lingers and how it follows me
All through the night for weeks
But I need you to come on back
'Cause when it wears off
I'm a mess and I'm lonely and I just get so sad

When will you come back?
'Cause I need to get back on track
When will you come back?

Damn, you're all in my hair and it's cool
Twirl it around with your finger
Your perfume that lingers on me for weeks
Darling, I wanna lay down
Wrapped in your hoodie, feels so damn good to me
I'm such a fool over you
Darling, I just wanna love
Something tells me we can finally understand
All of the things that we see
But I need you to come on back
'Cause when you wear off
I'm a mess and I'm lonely and I just get so sad
