

Seeing Double

Nick Hakim

Rip it all apart and carefully dissect your mess
Re-organize and try to find your self-
love that you've suppressed
All the pieces that you're looking for lay at your feet
And no one else can clean this mess
Get up, dissect it piece by piece
I was told that I was holding a long lived curse
Trapped down by my father's, father's line
It's leaving, I feel it moving out
I refuse to wear this mask
That you tied on my face
I need you to look in my eyes and watch what I'm releasing out this cage

Seeing double
I'm seeing double, seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
I'm seeing double, I'm seeing double
Double, double

Rip it all apart and carefully dissect your mess
Re-organize and try to find your self-
love that you've suppressed
