

Those Days

Nick Hakim

Remember the time
When everything was yours and mine?
Oh yes, those were the days
The flowers bloom, even at dawn
And all around you
Oh yes, those were the days

You stayed around
Growing with me inside of the snow
Your voice gave me the light
It was so cold in the house, when It seeks me
You kept me warm under the trees
Oh yes, those were the days
