

24th Hour

Nick Jonas

(Yeah, it kills me to watch you leave, leave, leave, leave)

I never had anyone that hurt me
I always guarded my heart so I'll be care-free
Finding someone who loves you isn't easy
It's not easy

Maybe that's why I never saw it coming
You were just like a dream, one in a million
Finding someone to trust isn't easy
It's not easy

I know that it was just a thing
But I never knew that it would sting
I thought I wouldn't feel anything
But it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour
24th hour
I thought I wouldn't feel anything
But it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour

60 minutes on the clock, multiple by 24 is a lot
But it's not enough to show you what I got
To show you that the loving never stop me
Yeah, yeah

I know that it was just a thing
(I had it figured out)
But I never knew that it would sting
(Like it does now)
I thought I wouldn't feel anything
But it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour
24th hour
Yeah, yeah
I thought I wouldn't feel anything
But it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour

You'd be yelling that you'd walk away
And that you only give it just one day
I know it's crazy, but I want more, more, more

(Just a thing)
I had it figured out
(It would sting)
Like it does now
(Anything)
You should know that it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour

I know that it was just a thing
(I had it figured out)
But I never knew that it would sting
(Like it does now)
I thought I wouldn't feel anything
But it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour
24th hour
Yeah, yeah
I thought I wouldn't feel anything
But it kills me to watch you leave on the 24th hour

24, 24th hour
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
