

I Do

Nick Jonas

Angel with a broken wing,
When you showed up at my door,
Now I'm falling more in love,
Than I ever was before.

And if you must,
Know the truth;
I knew that it was you.
So when you will, when you won't,
I do.

I know that an endless love,
Isn't something you can teach.
With you, there is not a star,
In the sky that I can't reach.

So if you must,
Know the truth;
I knew that it was you.
So when you will, when you won't,
I do.

So when you will,
When you won't,
You can just say "I will".
When we're young,
When we're old,
I do.
