

Seeing Ghosts

Nick Jonas

You got me seeing ghosts

Baby, you make a man believe in miracles

Baby, I'm not the man I was a year ago (Baby, the man I was a year ago, ha)

My premonition is you could get used to this

My superstition is you belong on my lips

My reservations lift when you're moving your hips

I'm gone, so gone (I'm gone, so gone)

And I never knew that a high came in this kinda dose (Came in this kinda dose)

I'm alive in a new kinda way, one that I've never known (One that I've never known)

And I die, floating six feet above when you're holding me close (When you're holding me close)

Take my soul out of my body for you, I'd do so much more than the most

Mm-hmm, you got me seeing ghosts

Got me seeing ghosts

Baby, the way you move is metaphysical, mm-

hmm (Baby, your move is metaphysical)

Yeah, yeah, and baby, I'd never lie to you, it's biblical, yeah (Hall elujah)

My premonition is you could get used to this

My superstition is you belong on my lips

My reservations lift when you're moving your hips

I'm gone, so gone (I'm gone, so gone)

And I never knew that a high came in this kinda dose, mm, yeah (Came in this kinda dose)

I'm alive in a new kindaway, one that I've never known, oh, oh (One that I've never known)

And I die, floating six feet above when you're holding me close

You got me seeing ghosts, woo

You got me seeing, you've got me seeing ghosts (You got me seeing ghosts)

You got me seeing, you've got me seeing ghosts (You got me, oh-oh, oh-oh)

I'm alive in a new kinda way, one that I've never known, oh-

And I die, floating six feet above when you're holding me close

Take my soul out of my body for you, I'd do so much more than the most
