Lover Don't Go

Nick Lowe

There's a hollow in the bed
Where your body used to be
Like the hollow in your heart
Where the love once was for me
It's still warm
But it won't be for long
Lover don't go
Please, lover don't go

I can feel it coming on
With the pounding of (?)
An emptiness inside
Like an aimless journey (?)
This is wrong
Everything tells me so
Lover don't go
Please, lover don't go

(Lover don't go)
What about the plans we made
(Lover don't go)
And all the funny little games we played
(Lover don't go)
Can you really turn your back
(Lover don't go)
Please..

There's a hollow in the bed
Where your body used to be
Please stay
Lover don't go
I can feel it coming on
Please lover don't go
It's still warm
Please lover don't go
Lover don't go
Lover don't go
