From my humble point of view She don't love nobody Nothing borrowed nothing blue She don't love nobody

Behind those green eyes I detect She don't love nobody A heart no kiss could resurrect She don't love nobody

All her life she's been told to hang on tight There's a man who'd make her his wife But she's not interested In anything mamma says

She throws passion to the wind She don't love nobody She don't give out but she don't give in She don't love nobody

And if I could I'd make her mine
She don't love nobody
And she would never walk that line
She don't love nobody

And I would give her anything
She don't love nobody
But I don't think she's suffering
She don't love nobody

All my life I've been told to hang on tight There's a girl who'd be my wife But I'm not interested In anything mamma says

I want the girl who does not need She don't love nobody She the one my heart recieves She don't love nobody, no She don't love nobody She don't love nobody
