

Dancing For The Answers

Nick Mulvey

Every day the one that comes along just the same
And we remain
Alive to the shimmer of the living rain
We remain
We remain
While my muse waits patiently
Dancing for the answers in the rain
She says you'll do all the things for which you came
There is no such thing as time nothing is lost and no one needs saving

Oh my goodness me
I'm glad I came
To meet my ancestors and learn their ways
The turning of the glory
The turning of the glory from the shame
We remain

What makes you vulnerable
Do you know where you haul? and where you fall
Eh oh
You can have it all
When you find greatness in the peace that you do not claim
You will have it all
When you find greatness in the peace that you do not claim

Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah

Yeah
