

The Trellis

Nick Mulvey

Strings as a pencil, a breath I drew in you
Indigoferra
The one in the two
A rose on a trellis
I grew for you
Sing a spell to a Pharoah
The one in the two
So come on put it in song
Tell me how you feel
Come on right from a wrong
Make it real
Cause just when the evidence seems clearer than day
Could it be that providence is leading us astray?
A rose on a trellis
I grew for you
Sing a spell to a Pharoah
The one in the two
We live a day in a morning a life by the afternoon
So sing a spell to a Pharoah
The one in the two
Come on right from a wrong
Tells how you feel
Come on put it in song
And make it real
Just take a right from a wrong darling
And tell me how it feels
Keep making it real darling
Keep making it real
