

Madeline

Nick Santino

I knew a girl and she had the most beautiful eyes
I'd ever seen in all my life
But I only see her face in my dreams
So when I go to sleep, she's all I see

Oh, Madeline, you're on my mind
I see you wherever I go
And it's been some time but I won't lie
I've missed you, my Madeline

We used to be like two birds and a tree
Then we both flew away and we never came back
But when I was gone, she was all that I wanted
Oh, my, stupid me, how could I do that?

So many days have come and gone
I'm always wondering where you are
I hope I can see you sometime
It's been so long, where have you been?
And can I see you again, my darling?

And now she's still gone and our love has moved on
But her eyes will always be looking back at me
