

Something Left to Hide

Nick Santino

I used to spend my money on a girl
I used to say we'd buy a house
I used to fill my pockets to the brim
And now I can pull them inside out
I remember when I would give a damn
Hell I remember when I knew what to say
I used to keep my secrets to myself
And now I just give em all away
Now I know that theres no second chance for losing
Still I thought that I could give it one more try
And In my heart I know that I can't stay forever
Well I know everyones got something left to hide

I used to put my worries in my pockets
And save em for a rainy day
But when them storm clouds came a talkin
I forgot just what to say
So I could spend forever holding grudges
Throw my cares out to the wind
With a suitcase full of stories
But not a soul to share them with

Now I know that theres no second chance for losing
Still I thought that I could give it one more try
In my heart I know that I can't stay forever
Well I know everyones got something left to hide

Who I am and where I go
Standing on my own
Where I've been, what I know
Scared to be alone
With miles and miles to go
I will always hold you close

And now I know that there's no rhyme or simple reason
To understand just how we got ourselves this far
For the first time in a while I can feel you
In my head I know that you're still in my heart
In my head I know that you're still in my heart
