

Devil On Your Shoulder

Nicklas Sahl

You'll never fly if you don't believe it
Don't waste your time on a stupid feeling
You think it's love and I fear you mean it

You know you'll only let her down
You know

But still, you feel this great desire
That maybe she could take you higher
But that's a selfish way to put it

'Cause it's not right right now
You know you'll only let her down
You know, you know

I'm just the devil on your shoulder
And you listen to angels now
You never hear me when I call ya, ooh
Yeah, I'm just the devil on your shoulder
And I whisper the ugly truth
You never hear me when I call ya, ooh

It's getting cold, too cold for devils
I'll find another place to settle
And your advice will come from heaven

Maybe it's right right now
Maybe you'll never let her down
Maybe it's right right now
Go find out, oh

I'm just the devil on your shoulder
And you listen to angels now
You never hear me when I call ya, ooh
Yeah, I'm just the devil on your shoulder
And I whisper the ugly truth
But you never hear me when I call ya, ooh

Yeah, I'm just the devil on your shoulder
And I whisper the ugly truth
You never hear me when I call ya, ooh
