

Good/Crazy

Nicklas Sahl

Ever since we broke in April
I've been acting so strange I'm not myself
Like something is missing
Got new friends, don't fit in
Wonder where you at and what you're doing
Did you find yourself a place somewhere downtown?
Are you nearby or distant?
Are you like me reminiscing?

I hung the painting that you made
The one you painted for my dad
I stole it from him long ago
To have something of yours

Baby
Didn't think I'd miss you already
And I been going through every memory
You and I were, you and I were good
Or am I crazy?
You're slipping through my hands, we're fading
I been thinking to myself, maybe
You and I were, you and I were good
Or am I crazy?

You and I were good
Or am I crazy?

My new job here keeps me busy
As the cold runs through the walls
And slowly freezes
My heart to pieces

I said I scribbled down your name on my table
An empty bottle in my hand, I'm faithful
I'm shaking, hearts breaking
I need you to save me

Baby
Didn't think I'd miss you already
And I been going through every memory
You and I were, you and I were good
Or am I crazy?
You're slipping through my hands, we're fading
I been thinking to myself, maybe
You and I were, you and I were good
Or am I crazy?

You and I were good
Or am I crazy?
You and I were good
Or am I crazy?
