

Quit Sugar

Nicklas Sahl

Don't wanna talk about you
And if you found somebody new
Well I don't wanna hear about it
Don't wanna hear about him

You and your pretty face
It doesn't matter where I go, I just can't escape
Oh, come on baby, give me a break
Why won't you give me a break?

You love my girlfriends more than you could love me
We both laughed when you said we could get married
I try to fight it, I swear that I do
But it's like tryna quit sugar, I'm addicted to you

Quit sugar

So close to get in touch
'Cause all I dream about is tryin' to call you up
And ask you, do you wanna fall back in love?
And waste a couple more years, we could give it a shot

You got your phone full of boys and it's letting you choose
You got 'em wrapped around your finger till they lost and confused
I try to fight it, yeah I swear that I do
But it's like tryna quit sugar, I'm addicted to you

Quit sugar
Quit sugar
You're so sweet
So sweet, you know I can't
Quit sugar
So sweet, you know I can't
Quit sugar

Want you, that a taste you can't resist

You love my girlfriends more than you could love me
We both laughed when you said we could get married
I try to fight it, I swear that I do
But it's like tryna quit sugar, I'm addicted to you

Quit sugar
Quit sugar
So sweet, so sweet
So sweet, you know I can't
Quit sugar
So sweet, you know I can't
Quit sugar
