

Without You

Nicky Jam

Hey, hey
iPhone with no wi-fi
A cloud without the skies
A christmas tree without the lights
I would never be alright without you

It's like the beat without the drum
A power cord without the plug, oh
A lottery ticket with no luck
I can never be the one without you

Now were one without the doctor
Halloween without the monsters, oh
Nothing even seems okay
I will never be the same without you

A guitar with no strings
Or a singer who can't sing
I'm like a bird without its wings
I can't even do a thing, without you

Cinematic masterpiece
A king without his queen
So call it Adam without Eve
Baby I'm just incomplete, without you

Now the one without the doctor
Halloween without the monsters, oh
Nothing even seems okay
I will never be the same without you

Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh

In a suit with no gravity
I'm losing touch of my reality
A bird who doesn't know it's caged
No compass to escape
I'm lost without you, so

Wo-oh-oh-oh
Wo-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh

Now were one without the doctor
Halloween without the monsters, oh
Nothing even seems okay
I will never be the same without you

Like a flower with no sun
Like the kiss without no fun
Like the beat without the drum

I will never know a love, without you, ay
