

Skywriters

Nicole Atkins

We heard you're leaving
That's so unfortunate
He's feeling sorry for himself
We knew it would be Only a short while
Till we started poisoning ourselves

Now nobody waits til they're the first ones to see the sun
They want a reminder more than once
Oh oh oh..

I'm out watching the skywriters finding futures for love
People to love
You're out watching the sidewinders calling, shining at the pas t
They never last

And you just run run run away
