

AmenJena

Nicole Scherzinger

My love I don't know where to start this,
'Cause I don't know where it is,
I wanna try and say things
I've never had the courage to send
Baby believe me when I tell you,
You have made me a new heart,
Remember us in AmenJena,
If we could just go back to the start.

'Cause I've lost paradise in crying,
I wanna be done loving you,
But giving up feels like I'm failing,
And thats just not what I do,
O if only it could be easy,
O if only this could be easy.

It isn't fair, it isn't perfect,
For me you've always been enough,
And I know it's hard to see when you don't believe it,
If you could just only trust,
'Cause we had the sweetest California,
Baby we were free,
We just drove,
Right of the cliff and now we're hanging,
And we just can't let go.

O if only it could be easy,
Love why can't it be easy,
Why can't it be easy,
Easy like when you shot me
O why don't you fight for me,
I'm losing myself, I'm just losing myself,
Can anybody save us now,
'Cause I don't know how, how, how.

I see the sun in the distance,
Just keep on moving with the wind,
Goodbye Geneva,
Not goin back there again,
O but don't you know I'd paint the skies for you,
Blow it up in lights for you,
If that could make a change,
I forgive the night we died,
Bring AmenJena back to life,
If that's all it would take.

If only it could be easy,
O love why cant it be easy,
Whatever it may be,
Let's make it easy,
Let's make it easy,
Just make it easy,
baby easy, easy, easy, easy.
