

Everybody

Nicole Scherzinger

ooooo

In the lights in your eyes
I'm resting peaceful by your side, by your side
And you turn like the tides I was all wasted
And there goes my whole life

Heart beats it feels like I'm dying
My knees I can't give up trying
All I want is to know where you are
Don't leave me here alone waiting
Cause your love's a chance that I'm taking
Yeah yeah yeah

Everybody needs somebody, oh, yeah
Everybody needs somebody, oh
And I need you

And I don't know words
That would convince you that you are safe with me
Is no sun in the sky
Will make you clearest so you could hear me

Heart beats it feels like I'm dying
My knees I can't give up trying
All I want is to know where you are
Don't leave me here alone waiting
Cause your love's a chance that I'm taking
Yeah yeah yeah

Everybody needs somebody, oh, yeah
Everybody needs somebody, oh
I need you

So bad that it hurts is just a sleep away from my eyes
I find that wearing a shirt
Hoping your scent will save me from these dark nights

Everybody needs somebody, oh, yeah
Everybody needs somebody, oh, yeah
Everybody needs somebody, oh, yeah
Everybody needs somebody, oh
And I need you
