

The Moment I Saw You

Nicolette Larson

The moment I saw you I wanted to hold you
And keep you warm on a cold days morn
The moment I held you I wanted to kiss you
And welcome you here on the day you were born

The moment I saw you I wanted you hold you
And keep you warm on a cold days morn
The moment I held you I wanted to kiss you
And welcome you here on the day you were born

The moment I saw you I wanted to hold you
And keep you warm on a clod days morn
The moment I held you I wanted to kiss you
And welcome you here an the day you were born
