Do you know?
How the problems you make and how more I can take?
I mean, things gon'
Fall apart, then it break, nothing more I can say
I keep all these fucking problems in my brain
I keep saying to myself that I'm so lame
I don't really fucking know what I became Tell these niggas stay the fuck outside my lane, ayy
Make it stop, we divided, can't fight it
Done hiding, need guidance
I'm dying, lil' baby, I'm dying, no
I'm back inside the basement, my location
I promise that I'll wait for you 'cause I got patience
I just wanna know why you be falling for me
I left in the morning, now you calling for me
I just want that fucking pussy, bitch, I'm craving
I like when you put it on me, that's my favorite
That bitch got me feeling like it's mental slavery
Still I'm fucking with you, bitch, I got some bravery, done

For you, I knew, I knew
Where you was hiding all along

She want me to save her (Save her), fuck all of my haters (Haters)
I'm living too dangerous (Dangerous), my life is amazing
I'm probably the nigga they hating
She switch up on me 'cause I made it
Things ain't what it seem when you famous
They don't see all the money I'm making
Who do you want from me? Who do you want?
You want a lot of me, then tell me you wanna be done
Give me your honesty, haven't asked for a lot
You never ride for me, so I think it's better to stop, oh, oh,
oh

You never ride for me, oh, no, oh, oh
You never ride for me, oh, oh
Think it's better when we stop
