

Thought I made it known I wonder why they cannot see uh
I got good intentions it was just a bad idea
All these ups and downs come around, this shit makes up my life

If she say she's hungry then it's probably dick I'll feed her
Bitch I fuck with you so much I'll climb the Burj Khalifa
I got too much pride, too much envy, yes I got my fucking vices

Every since the start there was just one thing that I said
I would never let this find a way into my head
I just fight, I don't want it
But it's nice, fuck it run it
What's the price
What's the motherfucking price

We came from the block there was no way we could ascend
So all this money that I spend, what the fuck did you expect Bitch I see it, then I want it, so I get it, I don't got no damn regret

Every day that pass, it's another thing I lose Overwork myself until I blow the fucking fuse
Now I'm running off, ain't run far enough, this shit hurts me so I'm signing off

Ay

I go where I want, I don't pay no fucking fee
They just wanna roll with me, I guess this the place to be Dot my I'd and cross my Ts, I don't let nobody get this shit for free
Aw

Running through these motherfucking hoes, they be tryna move the goal post
Ask me what's her name, what I look like bitch I don't know
I need time alone, I be driving 'round solo, bumper scrape the mother fucking ground 'cause it's so slow

She say wanna link don't wanna fuck, I'm 'a no show
Met that bitch in SoHo, face pretty, ass so-so Throwback 15 years we would buy our shoes at globo
Now this my reality I travel 'round the whole globe
It don't make no sense

Try to take me down
They did not succeed
And they miss me now
They miss me now
Now

Now. Eh

Aw
