

THE SUN

Night Lovell

Sick all day and it's 'cause I'm on my lone shit
In my brain, it be feeling like a mosh pit
You don't like me 'cause I'm sitting in the cockpit
Been too long so I told that bitch to stop it
Since I changed, I don't fuck with any sunny days
Don't go out in sunny days without my Cartiers
Cartiers nice but I like my Louis frames
Fucked that thottie and her friend but I forgot they names
Jokes aside, I've been going through some dark shit
Everyday, I just be feeling like some dog shit
It's like my body just belongs inside a dark trench
Then they find my body laying on a park bench
All these kids say I'm iconic, you so underrated
Well I rather underrated versus overrated
They say "Lovell, all this shit you say be helping me"
I'm just tryna make you niggas really start to see (Shit)

Tryna make you niggas really start to see, damn, damn

Break you down
Then I reach inside your head, just to see your thoughts
You can't touch me I'm a motherfucking greater demon
Yes, I'm back, bitch, this the motherfucking season
Will I pay these niggas mind? There's no fucking reason
Will I pay these bitches mind? They think I don't read 'em
Thinking back to when I used to have no fucking stress
All this shit has turned into a motherfucking mess
Nothing fucking less, pain inside my chest
Say you wanna take my pain, be my fucking guest
I'm so done with all these people lying to my face
Feel like moving all my shit some place, so far away
Maybe someday, I'm so fucking done
Don't you try to make me happy, saying I'm the one
You don't like me, just be honest, this no fucking fun
I refuse to listen to you, there's the fucking sun
It's time I fucking run, yeah

Wake up
Lovell, wake up!
