

Vulnerable Hours

Night Moves

How you Joker with the painted face?
Wetted skin every other Sunday
Looking for love with the browsing touch
Still I'm wondering if I'm asking too much, but I don't know
What will they think of me?
No money back from a failed foray
To find some company worth my pay

Well I'm thinking of you (All the time)
And I know what you'll say (If you could see me know)

Am I the one they want?
Am I the one they need?
Am I the one they want?
Or will I be the one to plead?

Surely I've never been here before
Been too long swinging to open a door
Twirling there with his building pride
Bending knee, now they come inside

Well I'm proud of you (All the lights)
Another classical time (I don't believe)
That it's taking its toll (On me now)
Well I'm not one to judge, but

Am I the one they'll touch?
Am I the one who'll breathe?
Am I the one who loves?
Will I be the one to please?

Are they the one I want?
Can they be the one I need?
Can they be the one to hold my hand and give me everything?
Am I the one they want?
Am I the one they need?
Are they the one I want?
Can they be the one I need?
Can you be the one to hold my hand and give me everything?
