

Bring It All Home to Me

Night Ranger

She makes her own life lonely
She doesn't know what to do
She's gonna drive herself crazy
Better me than you

She likes to get up when the sun fades
Doesn't have to explain
She's like a twister tornado
Inside a hurricane
She likes it warm in the summertime
You know she likes it when the moon shines
She takes her cues from the other side
Oh yea, what am I to do, I say

Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home, all home to me

She can tear it up any day
Just a walking down the street
Lots of loving in the moonlight
She's a woman meant for me

She's always looking for a good time
Checking in from the outside
She covers me like a landslide
Yea yea, what am I to do, I say

Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
To me, to me, to me

And though I'm lost and alone again
I feel this burn deep inside
You know I'll never be over you
You gotta bring it all home to me
To me, to me, to me, yea

She's always looking for a good time
You know she likes it when the moon shines
Yea yea, what am I to do, I say

Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home, all home

Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby

Bring it all home to me
Baby, baby, baby
Bring it all home
All home, all home
To me
