

Somehow Someway

Night Ranger

She came from a southern town
Left it all behind
Never stopped moving on

She carried a crystal ball
Showed her how to live
How not to fall
Oh yeah

Yet she would love
And she could cry
And she would learn how to
Learn how to fly

Somehow someway
No need for money
Somehow someday
No need to worry
I'll be back for you love
Back for you love (oh oh)
Somehow someway
Somehow you'll get there
Somehow someday
Someday you'll make it
I'll be back for love
Back for you love (oh oh)

LA was the place for sun
Last I heard she was tan and having fun
They tell me she lost her way
Left it in the city by the bay
Oh yeah

Yet she could love
And to survive
Yeah she would learn how to
Learn how to fly

Somehow someway
No need for money
Somehow someday
No need to worry
I'll be back for you love
Back for you love (oh oh)
Somehow someway
Somehow you'll get there
Somehow someday
Someday you'll make it
I'll be back for love
Back for you love (oh oh)

Letting go what's in your head
Rushing in where angels tread
They're the ones, the ones, the ones
That say yeah yeah yeah

Somehow someway

No need for money
Somehow someday
No need to worry
Somehow someday
Somehow someday

Somehow someday
Oh oh
Somehow someday
I'll be back for love
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
