

Everything Will Be Alright

Night Riots

All my selfish deeds are all I see
Blinded by the bigger scene I never see in front of me
Wear down until we tear, come undone
Fray a hole beyond repair

Lately, I feel undone
You thread me like no one

In a way I always knew
You'd come undone
Our thread it wears away
We can't change
And we come undone

Float into a fight I'm never gonna win
It's so sad I can't speak
It's a hopeless thing to weep
Heavy heart, I concede, it's not a war
Just tryna find some peace
The place between where we can meet

Lately, I feel undone
You thread me like no one

In a way I always knew
You'd come undone
Our thread it wears away
We can't change
And we come undone

Morning comes and brings new light
Everything will be alright
It's a new day
A new day
Morning comes and brings new light
Everything will be alright
It's a new day
A new day

In a way I always knew
You'd come undone
Our thread it wears away
We can't change
We can't change
And you come undone
