Celestial Fires

Night Verses

I fell through space and time,
a never ending fall without you.
Somewhere, across the stars aligned.
A never ending fall without you.
Tonight, I'm coming clean under the sun.
Just tell me what you want.
Say what you want...
Say what you wanted.
Can't we just be honest?
My body scorched the clouds.
A never ending fall without you.
Fire and earth bled from the mouth.
A never ending fall without you.
Tonight, I'm coming clean under the sun.
Just tell me what you want.
Deep under your eyes, so vast into the night...
Can't we just be honest?
