Rage

Night Verses

Hear me out!
Hear me out!
Hear me out!
Hear!

Why won't you tell me what you're thinking?
Why are you running from the world?
You waste my time.
Why won't you tell me what you're thinking?
Why are you punishing the world tonight?

Constellation looming over you.
Ghosts surrounding,
vanishing air to feel.

Cast out, I wanted to please you
and now you're not around
Am I losing myself?
Am I losing myself?
I lost count of the days I believed you
now you're not around
Am I losing myself?
Am I losing myself?

Why won't you tell me what you're thinking?
Why are you running away from the world?
Why won't you tell me what you're thinking this time?
I only want the truth. (The truth)

Constellation looming over you.
Ghosts surrounding,
vanishing air to feel.

Cast out, I wanted to please you
and now you're not around
Am I losing myself?
Am I losing myself?
I lost count of the days I believed you
now you're not around
Am I losing myself?
Am I losing myself?

I hear it in your throat,
I can see it in your eyes.
If a killing's what you want,
throw yourself under the knife.
If a killing's what you want,
throw yourself under the knife.

Cast out, I wanted to please you
and now you're not around
Am I losing myself?
Am I losing myself?
I lost count of the days I believed you
now you're not around
Am I losing myself?
Well I wanna know.

Yeah I wanna know.
Yeah I wanna know.
