

Rainbow

Nightcore

When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky

Cause of you I can finally live my dream now
Cause of you there's a rainbow in my sky
And I know we will walk this road together
Just the two of us
To guide the stormy weather

When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky
When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky

Cause of you I will walk a million miles now
Only you- you can make it all worth while
And I know we will walk this road together
Just the two of us
To guide the stormy weather

When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky
When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky

There's a rainbow in my sky
When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky
When I look into your eyes
Everything gonna be alright
Cause you're the reason there's a rainbow in my sky
When I look into your eyes
