every part

Nightly

I wanna kiss you like you just survived a plane crash
See all the pieces that you're always scared to show
I wanna know just where your head goes when you spiral
When everybody else just walks out, I won't go
And I'll make friends with the voices inside of your head
And I'll kill off all the monsters under your bed

Yeah so tell me you're broken
Tell me you're sad
Your daddy issues and panic attacks
I want every part of you
Show me the bad parts show me your scars
From all your ex's that drew on your heart
I want every part of you
I do
I do

I wanna hold you like the world we know is ending
Be the one you call when all of it's not making sense
If you wanna runaway then I'll be the Getaway
Just say the word now and promise me that you'll stay
That you'll stay

Tell me you're broken
Tell me you're sad
Your daddy issues and panic attacks
I want every part of you
Show me the bad parts show me your scars
From all your ex's that drew on your heart
I want every part of you
I do
I do

And I'll make friends with the voices inside of your head
And I'll kill off all the monsters under your bed

Tell me you're broken
Tell me you're sad
Your daddy issues and panic attacks
I want every part of you
Show me the bad parts show me your scars
From all your ex's that drew on your heart
I want every part of you
I do
I do
