

No Call, No Reply

Nightly

A plane, watching all the passing cars
Just stay, you know this isn't who you are
No trace, I loved you Sydney from the start
But I can't go on like this

Every night, all of my head
Wishing you'd send a sign
Don't you know that I cannot read your mind
All that you say, all of this mess
We could just leave behind
Don't you know that I cannot read your mind

Can you tell me, is it me?
All the secrets that you keep
'Cause I got nothing, I got nothing
And now after all this time, you still leave me out to dry
Hearing nothing
No call, no reply

I'll wait, swear that I don't wanna fight
I'll take, throw away my foolish pride
I hate, I see it in your brother's eyes
But I wish I could hear it from you

Every night, all of my head
Wishing you'd send a sign
Don't you know that I cannot read your mind
All that you say, all of this mess
We could just leave behind
Don't you know that I cannot read your mind

Can you tell me, is it me?
All the secrets that you keep
'Cause I got nothing, I got nothing
And now after all this time, you still leave me out to dry
Hearing nothing
No call, no reply
