

Phantom

Nightly

The sound of your voice
Echoes in my head
I spend each night
Chasing your silhouette

I call out your name, call out your name
Nothing is changed
I stand in silence
With the memory I can't erase

Phantom
You haunt me like a phantom
I sing you like an anthem
Coming for you every night
In a dream I'm slowdancing with your ghost
Feel your touch, wake up, and I'm all alone
You're a phantom
You haunt me like a phantom

The beat of your heart
Running through my veins
It's like a drum in my blood
And I can't escape

I call out your name, call out your name
Nothing is changed
I stand in silence
And I know I can't escape

Phantom
You haunt me like a phantom
I sing you like an anthem
Coming for you every night
In a dream I'm slowdancing with your ghost
Feel your touch, wake up, and I'm all alone
You're a phantom
You haunt me like a phantom

In a dream I'm slowdancing with your ghost
Feel your touch, wake up, and I'm all alone
You're a phantom
You haunt me like a phantom
