

When I'm on the ride home
In some other time zone
You're in my head like a song
Stuck in the traffic
And all of the static
It's your voice that's playing along

Yeah I think of you
Awake in my bed
Touching my hair
Singing Radiohead
And I'd say forever
But that feels too soon
For me to ever
Not be close to you

Ooh, it's you

God only knows
How hard I've tried
To write it all down, spit it out
Let you read my mind
But it don't make it better
There's nothing to say
You're lovely in ways
That I just can't explain

Ooh, ooh

Yeah I think of you
Awake in my bed
Touching my hair
Singing Radiohead
I'd say forever
But that'd be too soon
For me to ever
Not be close to you

Ooh, it's you
Ooh, it's you

I've tried and I've tried (It's you)
But all that's on my mind is you

(Yeah I think of you)
