

Say what you want about me
I still feel sorry for you now
So take this how you want to
I'm over you, you bled me out
You manipulate the things I felt
Seems like you've become somebody else

You think that we're fine
I'll put everything you said behind
You think we're okay
I'm just gonna let you act this way
You think you're so sly
That I'd fall for all your lies
If you think I'd sit right here and play along
Well you thought wrong
You thought wrong

You try to smile at me
You act like there's nothing going on
The person you pretend to be
I see right through now, it took so long
It took so long
You manipulate my mental health
Seems like you've become somebody else

You think that we're fine
I'll put everything you said behind
You think we're okay
I'm just gonna let you act this way
You think you're so sly
That I'd fall for all your lies
If you think I'd sit right here and play along
Well you thought wrong
You thought wrong

You think that we're fine
I'll put everything you said behind
You think we're okay
I'm just gonna let you act this way
You think you're so sly
That I'd fall for all your lies
If you think I'd sit right here and play along
Well you thought wrong
You thought wrong
You thought wrong
