Out of the darkness and into the bright light
We carry the ties that we bind to you
Out of the darkness and into the bright light
We carry ties that we-
Out of the darkness and into the bright light
We carry the ties that we bind to you
Out of the darkness and into the bright light
We carry the ties that we bind to you

I am the broken blooming bough
The countless sunsets of a lost world
See me, see me?
So alike we are, you and us, soon
See me, see you
On an island of a shipless crew
