

Lost In You

Nik Kershaw

I feel like breaking this silence
It's so loud, it's so loud
Just me and these four walls
And my MTV
So I close my eyes
And I open my heart
And I find myself
Lost in you
I've had enough of this cold night
It's so long, yeah too long
Only you can make it feel right
Alright for me
So I close my eyes
And I open my heart
And I find myself
Lost in you
New day, new town, same old song
Feels like i've been gone too long
How i wish I could call you
I just want to hear your voice
But it's early morning where you are
And late night for me
So I close my eyes
And I open my heart
And I find myself
Lost in you
Yea I close my eyes
And I open up my heart
And I find myself
Lost in you
