You love me with your bones
You hold me when I'm broke
You don't ask for a thing
Oh, I hope it's you they put me in the ground by

Know where I've been, where I'm from
You know who took me to prom
You've watched as my legs and pride grew taller
Oh, I wanna be the one you call drunk

Oh, I know that we march to the beat of different drums
We're still so damn young
In and out of believing in love
What the fuck's love?
All I know is love
When push comes to shove
I'll be the one a-

Round and round we go
So much I don't know
But even though this ain't pretty and simple like a bed of rose s
'Least I know my hope is That you stick around 'til the end
'Cause you're my best friend

You cut me, I bleed gold
I miss you though you're cold
You're inside a different soul when I'm not around
But that's ok, I do the same

Oh we're in a maze with no end
But I'm amazed to no end
Darling, we don't ever have to pretend
Who knows what or who we choose
Right now I've nothing to lose
You love me, I love you
