

Meltdown

Nikka Costa

I've heard you talkin' about the way we play our games
Honey don't you realize man and woman ain't the same?
No matter how we try and try to give each other what we need
Somebody ends up with teary eyes and somebody feels like a dirty dog

It's causing a meltdown baby
Right down the middle babe
It's causing a meltdown baby
Right down the middle

A kiss to make it better - honey I don't know what's wrong with you
Don't you hear me say I'm needing you?
Feels like I'm talking to a stranger even though I know we love the same
Gotta give a little understanding
Man and woman, we gotta get it together

It's causing a meltdown baby
Right down the middle babe
It's causing a meltdown baby
Right down the middle

Everybody cries, everybody loves, everybody feels, everybody dies,
Everybody sees, everybody flies, everybody knows, everybody falls,
Everybody hurts, everybody dreams, everybody heals, everybody tries,
Everybody loves
