Did you say what I think you said?
Showed up at my house so late
Trying to put your hands on me
Like babe, I fucking need you
You're seriously coming 'round
Ain't this what I warned you about?
Saying that you miss me now
And I just don't believe you

Cause you're lonely
Only time you call me
I'm not loving you no more
I guess you finally
See there's no one like me
Don't know what you came here for

Oh, now you gotta get it off your chest
Finally got it through your head
That I ain't easy to forget
It's almost like you mean it
You should tell the one you're laying with
Maybe she'll believe you like I did
But either way, you can't pretend
Like there's any other reason

Cause you're lonely
Only time you call me
I'm not loving you no more
I guess you finally
See there's no one like me
Don't know what you came here for
