

Forget

Nikki Yanofsky

Let me tell you about the people who doubt, the people who doubted me
I wanna thank you guys for knockin' me down, I'm happy we disagreed
Every "no" I heard before
Only made me want it more
I'm the one who got away for ya now, you'll deny you remember me

But you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
You would only see what I couldn't be
Now, you're never gon' forget about me

Let me tell you about the people who laughed, the people who laughed at me
I wanna thank you girls for pickin' me last, a drum that you couldn't beat
Had to make it on my own
I got good at being alone
You're playin' up how much I mean to you now, you're like, "Yeah, she remembers me"

But you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
You would only see what I couldn't be
Now, you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
You would only see what I couldn't be
Now, you're never gon' forget about me

Won't forget about me
Won't forget about me
Won't forget about me
Won't forget about me

To everyone who closed the door, I'm thanking you for motivation
I don't need you anymore, but you're never gon' forget about me
For all the times you turned me down, I found a way to overcome it
You told me you don't get my sound; why don't you turn the music up right now? Listen!

No, you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
You would only see what I couldn't be
Now, you're never gon' forget about me (what?)
No, you're never gon' forget about me

Won't forget about me
Won't forget about me

No, you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
You would only see what I couldn't be
Now, you're never gon' forget about me
No, you're never gon' forget about me
