

I like the way you talk looking at me

Niko B

All you did was talk, then you had me
You stayed in my thoughts in the back seat
And I like the way you talk, looking at me
Do you like the way I talk when I'm looking at you?

She don't wanna, wanna cry
She got those teardrops in her eyes
What I do to you—
Would you do to me over again?

I got
I got
I got
I got two cups
In the evening
Another three cups
For the weekend
Did a big dive
In the deep end
It's a bit cold
I need heating
And it's too late
In the morning
Will you teach him
What you taught me?
Well, I hope not
'Cause it's not sweet
Have you got me?
Will you cross keys?

I spent too much
On new stuff
That I don't need
Like a blue rug
And a few drugs
Find true love
Got a new crib
And the view sucks

I just threw up
In the Uber
'Cause some guy
Said he knew ya
See an old face
In a new one
And I like it
Yeah, it's super

All you did was talk, then you had me
You stayed in my thoughts in the back seat
And I like the way you talk, looking at me
Do you like the way I talk when I'm looking at you?

She don't wanna, wanna cry
She got those teardrops in her eyes
What I do to you—
Would you do to me over again?

Magic
Double denim and it's matching
Got a stone in left ear
Ring in right and it's clashing

It's tragic
I put a silver tooth in a napkin
I spent forty quid on plastic
To put on shelves, and it looks fantastic

Blimey
I made too much noise in a library
Left wrist looks all shiny and
You look awful good in a white tee

Colors looking all primary
Food's all past the expiry
I wrote a shopping list in a diary
And overpaid 'cause it's way too pricey

All you did was talk, then you had me
You stayed in my thoughts in the back seat
And I like the way you talk, looking at me
Do you like the way I talk when I'm looking at you?

All you did was talk, then you had me
You stayed in my thoughts in the back seat
And I like the way you talk, looking at me
Do you like the way I talk when I'm looking at you?

She don't wanna, wanna cry
She got those teardrops in her eyes
What I do to you—
Would you do to me over again?
