

BETTER DAYS

Niko Moon

When the stars are burning out
And the waves are crashing in Running circles in my mind
Got me searching for a light
That can guide me home again
When I'm in a hurricane
And the waters start to rise
While the lonely and the thunder
Wanna try and take me under
But I'm swimmin' 'gainst the tide

I been caught in stormy weather
But nothing lasts forever
That morning sunrise gon' remind me

I still got
Good friends that I've never met
And some big dreams that I'm trying to catch
And some memories that I wanna get
But I still ain't got to make
And it's a simple life that I wanna live
And a lot of love that I gotta give
And a couple checks off the bucket list
That I still ain't got to make
So when I think my bend is gonna break
Oh, I hold on to the hope of better days

So when I'm drifting in the deep
And I'm looking for someone
Oh, it always comes to find me
Just in time to remind me
The best is yet to come

Cause I've got
Good friends that I've never met
And some big dreams that I'm trying to catch
And some memories that I wanna get
But I still ain't got to make
And it's a simple life that I wanna live
And a lot of love that I gotta give
And a couple checks off the bucket list
That I still ain't got to make
So when I think my bend is gonna break
Oh, I hold on to the hope

Of living in the moment
'Stead of drowning in the past
Cause time it keeps on rolling
Gotta learn to make it last

I still got
Good friends that I've never met
And some big dreams that I'm trying to catch
And some memories that I wanna get
And I know I'm 'bout to make
And it's a simple life that I wanna live
A whole lot of love that I got to give

A couple checks off the bucket list
I just can't wait to make
So when I think my bend is gonna break
I hold on to the hope of better days

Better days
Oh, better days
Better days
