

LAST CALL

Niko Moon

Girl I'm buzzin' like a neon light
Shootin' doubles, it's been a hell of a night
And yeah, I'm feelin' alright
'Cause girl your lovin' is too damn good for a shot
A real woman can't be put on the rocks
So girl, I'll take what you got

Yeah, I spilt more than most people drink
Wake up and don't remember a thing
The band is playing their last song
While all the lights are comin' on
Yeah, if lovers are like alcohol
Girl you're my last call

I've had Southern Comfort, even had sex on the beach
But all them others (All them others)
They don't do it for me (Don't do it for me)
'Cause girl you're just what I need (Just what I need baby)

Sweeter than the finest wine
Smoother than a whiskey rye
Stronger than that Moonshine baby
One drink in and I could tell
Never goin' back to well
Girl, you got that top shelf, baby

Yeah, I spilt more than most people drink
Wake up and don't remember a thing
The band is playing their last song
While all the lights are comin' on
Yeah, if lovers are like alcohol
Girl you're my last call

(Alright)

Sweeter than the finest wine
Smoother than a whiskey rye
Stronger than that Moonshine baby (Baby)
One drink in and I could tell
Never goin' back to well
Girl, you got that top shelf, baby

Yeah, I spilt more than most people drink (That's right)
Wake up and don't remember a thing (Remember a thing)
The band is playing their last song (Play on)
While all the lights are comin' on
Yeah, if lovers are like alcohol
You know if lovers are like alcohol (Lovers are like alcohol)
Yeah, if lovers are like alcohol
Girl you're my last call
