

Binding

Nilüfer Yanya

Driving too fast
Vacant and glass eyed
Not coming back
Down from the hills
Chemical crash
Damaged my left side
Don't get attached
Taste of the steel

It feels like, feels like it's deeper and deeper
Drive all night, that green light gets weaker and weaker
So come on and feel this, I'm hardly here either
One push and my wheels give, amnesia, amnesia
So come on and feel this, the needle gets deeper
I'm hollow I needed this, I need your amnesia

We chase each storm, it takes me nowhere
Cut this loop inside my heart
Getting caught inside my chest
And I taste your scorn, I don't know what's left
Got to give me something strong
Got to make sure it's your best

Came up too fast
You know it and I'm
Draining my stash
Up in these hills
Heaven for cash
View from a new height
Happiness tax
Ecstasy builds

And it feels like, feels like it's deeper and deeper
Drive all night, that green light gets weaker and weaker
So come on and feel this, I'm hardly here either
One push and my wheels give, amnesia, amnesia
So come on and feel this, the needle gets deeper
I'm hollow I needed this, I need your amnesia

We chase each storm, it takes me nowhere
Cut this loop inside my heart
Getting caught inside my chest
And I taste your scorn, I don't know what's left
Got to give me something strong
Got to make sure it's your best
We trace each dawn with my hands I tear
Cut a hole inside my heart
Cut me out, you won't regret
As I taste your scorn, got one more request
Got to give me something strong
Got to make sure it's your best
