

Hello human, is that your voice?
Put up a wall on Wednesday's dreams
Never you mind what she sell
She keep her weekends like this always

And I can tell you've only just begun
I can tell you feel exhausted
I can tell you're not the only one

Good luck human, if that's your choice
I'm still lost on Wednesday's voice
Hello you, I've not done it well
I plan on feeling like this always

And I can tell you've only just begun
I can tell you feel exhausted
I can tell you're not the only one

Good luck sweetheart
If it's not too hard
Say the same thing
Goodbye baby, don't try and save me from the same words
Good luck sweetie, 'cause it's not easy, it's not easy

They're so weak, I know what that's like
We can reload Wednesday's light
Killed us off and wished us well
And I keep on feeling like this all day

And I can tell you've only just begun
I can tell you feel exhausted
I can tell you're not the only one

Good luck sweetheart
If it's not too hard
Say the same thing
Goodbye baby, don't try and save me from the same words

You know that it's just comfort
I tried to lose his company
I tried to pay them off
I tried to take us honestly
You know that it's just
I tried to lose his company
I tried to pay them off
I tried to take us honestly
You know that it's just
