

Method Actor

Nilüfer Yanya

Keeping me down
Can't get one past me
I came here last week
Just shake with laughter
My method actor
Not gonna solve all my problems
I'd love to drown in my new costume

It's not a fault, won't apologize for
How comes right now, there's no advice for?
People like you and me get jaded
People like us, our dreams get faded

Why go back so soon?
What do you keep in that room?
Keeping me down
Old school glamour
Can't get much faster
Messing around till I shake with laughter
Come place your dagger

But I mean it
And I don't feel it
It's just too strong
Gave you everything, it's gone
Gonna bleed out, hit the ceiling
I gave you everything you needed

Lost to a cult
Let me bend this light beam
They replace my bloodstream
You should pull that trigger
Aim it at my liver

Losing a pulse and all my problems
I love to dance in my new costume
Watching the crowd kick in my jaw
Nothing profound to skate on thin ice
You're coming around like a washed-out cartoon
Stores it in the backroom
Since you got promoted
Say you keep it loaded
Keeping you proud
Won't apologize for
Somebody else, too tough
Yeah, you can't make this up
Should've fallen and died in love

But I mean it
And I don't feel it
It's just too strong
Gave you everything, it's gone
Gonna bleed out, hit the ceiling
I gave you everything you needed

Gonna miss her when she's gone
I was simply lost too long

Gonna scream out, there's no meaning
Spit my teeth out as you're bleeding
I gave you everything you needed
